Prakriti Kitchenette is one of the highest-rated industrial kitchens in Delhi NCR with excellent ratings from Sodexo, Somato and Hanger Box along with ISO & HACCP certifications. These acclamations are made possible with a gold standard hygiene involving highest quality of ingredients, regular testing of food & water from NABL accredited lab, regular check-ups & sanitisation of employees, and the use of high-quality PPE kits in accordance with government guidelines. PPE had setup its first facility in Noida in the year 2018, which was followed by the second one in Gurugram. Similar to its vision to strive for the best world class service in the organic food serving business, PKPL facility functions all year, built to serve 10,000+ meals every day. It is this hunger for excellence that has propelled Prakriti Kitchenette and Gupta to the top of the food business in the Delhi-NCR region with a vision to operate across India.

PKPL initially targeted IT/ITES segment, but the pandemic brought it to an abrupt end with employees being forced to work from home. Despite various challenges thrown upon Mr. Gupta and Prakriti Kitchenette, his visionary thinking, redirected them towards the media and manufacturing. Realising that the media industry never stops, PKPL quickly roped in clients such as The Times Group, ABP News, Zee TV and various other media firms.

PKPL, under the guidance of Sandeep Gupta, aims to provide the best of the best in all segments. With reasonable pricing and customizable menus according to client needs, the team is able to come up with the best plans. This is furthered by quick deliveries and the utmost respect of the clients' time. Throughout the process, Gupta ensures no drop in quality as well as carefully listening to and implementing the feedback given by his clients. This impeccable eye for excellence has earned them the opportunity to cater for the British High Commission (BHC) in Delhi.

Delhi, December 24, 2020: Seeing the monopoly of traditional meal providers in the food and beverage industry, Mr. Sandeep Gupta, a Chartered Accountant, set on a mission to change and break that stronghold. Founded in 2018, Prakriti Kitchenette Private Limited (PKPL) is a premiere B2B catering service of choice amongst multiple top-tier companies in Noida and Gurugram. PKPL was founded by Sandeep along with co-founder, Mr Rajan Rahi, an alumnus of XLRI.
